Offer of Shoddy Manufacturers Association for Defence supplies of Blankets

3598 SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state.

(a) whether any representation has been received from or on behalf of Shoddy Manufacturers Association, Bombay pleading for supply of woollen blankets for the armed forces;

(b) whether it is a fact that livelihood of nearly 1000 workers and their families depend upon units of M/s. Shree Krishna Woollen Mills, manufacturing woollen blarkets;

(c) whether army officers and officials of the Ministry of Defence have commended the quality of blankets manufactured by the above unit;

(d) whether the said unit is in a position to meet the whole requirement of Indian Army for blankets;

(e) whether it is a fact that the blankets presently being purchased by the Ministry of Defence from bigger units are costlier than the ones offered by the above small-scale unit; and

(f) whether Government are reconsidering the question of placing orders with the above unit?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Government has no comments to offer

(c) No, Sir

(d) The unit is known to manufacture Shoddy blankets. These do not conform to the specifications to which blankets are being purchased for the Army.

(e) As the Shoddy blankets manufactured by Shree Krishna Woollen mills, Bombay do not conform the specifications prescribed by the army, the question of price comparison with superior blankets does not arise.

(f) No, Sir.
